

Akron Symphony Orchestra Concert Membership Terms and Conditions

- All-4-One on Nov. 23
- Medina Holiday Pops on Dec. 14
- Hotel California on Feb. 1
- Gospel Meets Symphony on Feb. 8

Seating is subject to availability. Order your seats in advance for best availability. If a concert you want to attend is sold out, you can choose from another concert to attend throughout the season, or you can continue to attempt to get tickets to the sold out concert as tickets are often turned back by others who are no longer able to attend. Only season ticket holders are guaranteed the same seats to every concert in their package. Members are not guaranteed the same seats for every concert.

Your monthly concert membership fee gets you access to as many concerts as you'd like to attend. It is not a donation to the ASO. If you'd like to make a tax-deductible donation, please visit www.akronsymphony.org/donate

Your credit card will be charged immediately. Your credit card will then be charged once per month on the same date of your initial membership purchase (i.e. if you order your membership on the 5th of the month, you will be charged on the 5th of every month thereafter). We auto bill your credit card every month, on the same day of the month that your concert membership was activated.

If you cancel your concert membership there are no refunds, but you will still have access to a concert until your next billing date.
